

Event about funding from Trust for London for organisations led by people with learning difficulties

	Hello!
 	People First would like to invite you to an in-person event that we are running with Trust for London.
	What is the event about? It is about the Disability Justice Fund. Trust for London is giving away £1.2 million in Round 2. They really want organisations led by people with learning difficulties to apply for this funding.
 	When? Monday 22 nd January What time? 1pm-2pm lunch 2pm-4.30pm event (with breaks)
 	Where? Trust for London, 4 Chiswell Street, London EC1Y 4UP

Nearest stations: Moorgate and Liverpool Street. This is an in-person event. It is not a hybrid or Zoom meeting.

Want more information about the Disability Justice Fund?

You can:

- Watch a 3-minute video with more information about the fund here.
- Access more information including easy-read guidance and access support here (you have to scroll down to find them underneath 'key documents').
- Look at the FAQ here.

The deadline for applying for funding is 4th March 2023.

It may be a good idea to watch the video or read some information before you come to the meeting on 22nd January.

It might help you think about any questions or ideas you have before the event.

Want to come?

Please email

djf@trustforlondon.org.uk

Only people who book in advance will be able to come to the meeting.

In your email, please say:

- The name of your organisation
- Who is coming from your organisation (maximum 3 people)
- Any dietary requirements (as they are providing lunch, it is important that they know this)
- Any access requirements. Trust for London will pay for any transport or other access requirements.

Want to bring more than 3 people?

Please let Trust for London know if you want to bring more than 3 people. They will let you know if there is space nearer the time.

Not sure if it is a good idea to come?

Please contact us. We will be happy to talk about this with you.

Trust for London will tell us who is coming, and we are looking forward to seeing you there!

Best wishes
